ANNOUNCEMENT.

Fellow-citizens of Mason County:

I again announce myself an Independent Candidate for the House of Delegates, and expect as soon as possible to appoint a series of meetings throughout the county, that I may give an account of my stewardship for the past two years, as well as my present views upon the questions of the day. I will be pleased to divide time with my competitors at all times.

JOHN M. REYNOLDS.

July 23-24.

A Proposition.—Any one sending us $5 will receive the Register five years.—We make this proposition because we desire to enlarge our paper, and want 250 subscribers for five years at $5 each. This will make your paper cost you only $1 a year. This proposition is open to old as well as new subscribers. Study the matter and see if the proposition is not a fair one. Let every Democrat interest himself in our behalf and help to procure this number of subscribers.

Lots of beads, sleeveless jackets and the reigning color—brown—are what is going to set both sexes crazy this season.

Our sportsmen are beginning to slay the feathery tribe and the squirrels, too, for that matter. The partridges are fat, well grown and abound everywhere.

One newspaper editor asks "what will a woman not do for the man she loves?" And another replies "everything but eat onions when going to a party with him."

Mr. C. W. Young son of John Young, Mason City, is home on a visit. He has been attending school during the past two years, at one of the leading universities of Germany. He has been a close student and we judge made the best use of his rare advantages. Society and business interests need plenty more young men of the same stamp. He has our best wishes for his future success.—Rec.

THE FAIR.—The Second Annual Fair of the Mason County Agricultural and Mechanical Association commenced Tuesday. The exhibition of stock will be very large. The display in the Floral Hall will surpass anything which ever came off in this Valley. The display of Agricultural Implements and Mechanical products, will be extensive. The attendance promises to be unusually large. The Fair will close on Friday evening with a grand ball at Folsom's Hall. On Saturday the Centennial celebration will come off.

The Point Pleasant Brass Band will furnish the music at the Fair. Their employment by the Directors is a high compliment to the members of the Band.

Hon. P. C. Bestheim and Dr. E. Howard, Esq., addressed the members of Cooper District at Gellin's School house last Friday night.

Mr. James Gould opened out a fine stock of Jewelry and Watches, this week, in Dr. Moore's building. Give him a call.

We are gratified to announce that Dr. F. Campbell, whom we noticed last week as being dangerously hurt, is recovering. We hope to soon see him upon the streets again.

W. B. Cable has just received a nice lot of general hardware, including guns of every description, also a fine lot of stoves, both heating and cooking. Mr. Cable is one of our most enterprising business men, and is deserving the patronage of the public. Give him a call.

New Goods.—Setzer, Schou and McCulloch, have just received from New York City, the largest stock of goods they have ever brought to this place, which they are selling cheaper than ever. Go and see them. It is a good place to deal.

A fine stock of goods is now opening by Borders & Bickle, such as piece goods, ready-made clothing, hats, boots, shoes, gent's furnishing goods, dry goods, &c.—Give them a call.

Singing School.—Prof. Wait has taken the initiatory steps towards establishing a singing-school in this place. We trust our citizens will take an interest in this matter and send their children to this school, that they may be taught to sing and read music, which is a very necessary accomplishment, especially for young ladies.

WINE.—The article of wine having been inadvertently left out of the premium list, we are authorized to say that for the best display of wines a premium of $2 is offered, and for the best wine a premium of $1 will be given.

BAND WAGON.—Mr. P. M. Gabbart has procured a nice Band Wagon for the accommodation of our Band. He will also run it between this place and the Fair Grounds for the accommodations of those who wish to attend it.

Col. Ben Smith, of Kanawha, will deliver the Centennial address, Oct. 10th.

We have every assurance that none but Democrats will be elected to office next Tuesday. Bring out every voter.

Go to the polls early Tuesday morning, and work for the success of Democratic principles.

The Radicals pitch into Mr. Hereford in the 3rd Congressional District, because he accepted the salary a Radical Congress gave him.

Truth is mighty &c. We are beginning to learn now why McEnery was deposed from his office as Governor of Louisiana, and Kellogg placed in his position. We have already published letters from Kellogg to several Congressmen and others in Washington, paying them heavy fees for something. To-day we publish a long memorandum of Kellogg's and Packard's checks for various sums given to these same parties about the time that the usurpation took place. All this is very damaging and very significant. But it's nothing. Only one more exposition of Radical corruption. We ought to be accustomed to these things by this time.—Ex.
